* Payment plans available upon request.

* Activity Director responsible for supplying facility website for hyperlink on the Creative Aging website.

*In order for your facility to be listed in the annual printed program, forms must be returned by January 15th.

*All Creative Aging programs must be scheduled through the Program Director at 200-6940.
All programs must be used during the calendar year of membership as they do not carry over.

*Please note that some artists charge an additional fee on holidays which would be the responsibility of the facility. Prior to booking, the facility will be asked if they wish to pay the additional fee or choose another artist.

* In the event that a program has been scheduled and confirmed and then is cancelled by facility less than 24 hours in advance, program may count as one membership program. For those cancelled by facility after the artist is en route or after they have arrived, program will count as one membership program.

*Our website (www.creativeagingcincinnati.org) is the best place to find the most current listing of program options. If you do not have access to the website, we will provide a hard copy version of our program options. Please check the box on enrollment form to request this. Facility must fill out the provided Program Data Sheet following each performance and return via email, mail or fax immediately following the program.
